

Textbook Information

The cost of textbooks is included in the tuition bundle for all Undergraduate students. Students will have electronic access to their books. If the students wish to have a hard copy of a textbook that we have available, the student may see one of the deans on campus. Any student who requires a physical or special textbook for accommodations will be provided the appropriate text based on the accommodations indicated.